CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20505

SAVA 73-55

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR

13 April 1973

MEMORANDUM FOR:

Assistant Deputy Director for Production
National Security Agency

25X1

SUBJECT :

25X1

1. Your recent spot reports have been extremely valuable in our continuing efforts to monitor the Communists' activities, capabilities, and intentions. correlation by your analysts of with other data showed the level of expertise that the community has come to expect from your people. As you are aware, such analysis and the resultant intelligence are of the highest priority at present, and are vital inputs to the evaluations and judgments which have been, are, and will be asked of us by our masters downtown.

the final conclusions were not reached until 22 March and 11 April. I realize that there were a number of anomalies present which had to be addressed before publishing on these sensitive subjects, and I find no real fault with the decision to delay publication until these anomalies had been satisfactorily resolved. I am a little bothered, however, by the length of the delay before publication.

3. It is my understanding that collation and analysis of []
[] have traditionally had a relatively low priority, given the many other demands on your peoples' time []. The importance [] in the current context, however, [] suggests to me that the priority should be raised for the time being.

Indeed, you may have already done so, and this paragraph may already have been overtaken by your continuing shuffling of your assets to meet the changing needs of the community and its customers.
